Program Will Raise Awareness

“Beauty From Pain,” an event that seeks to explore and bring awareness to human trafficking, will be held at Hempfield United Methodist Church (UMC) on Saturday, Jan. 29.

A 90-minute multimedia program, “Beauty From Pain” will feature contemporary music, first-person vignettes, dance, and guest speakers from International Justice Mission and the Philadelphia Anti-Trafficking Coalition. The event will begin at 7 p.m. and is free and open to the public.

Also speaking will be a representative from North Star Initiative, a Lancaster County organization that seeks to provide a restoration house for trafficked victims. Following the program, attendees will be provided with ways they can help combat human trafficking, both locally and abroad.

Hempfield UMC is located at 3050 Marietta Ave., which is at the corner of Stony Battery Road and Marietta Avenue, in Lancaster. For more information on the church, readers may visit hempfieldumc.com or call 285-5156.
